

The National Whig
FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1847.
FOR PRESIDENT, IN 1848,
MAJOR GENERAL
ZACHARY TAYLOR,
OF LOUISIANA,
THE HERO
OF
PALO ALTO, RESACA DE LA PALMA,
MONTEREY,
And Buena Vista.
Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

Mr. T. M. Kimber is no longer an Agent for the National Whig.
NOTICE.—Persons indebted to the National Whig for advertisements, are respectfully requested to make payment either to the Proprietor in person, or to Mr. G. L. Gilchrist, who is our sole Agent, and whose receipts alone will be recognized by us as valid.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.
A LETTER FROM GEN. TAYLOR.
A valued friend, says the last New Orleans Bulletin, and who is also a distinguished citizen of this State, has forwarded the following communication, which, at the present moment, will, no doubt, be perused with general interest.

The letter from General Taylor, is written with the same modesty and delicacy of feeling, which have so eminently characterized every thing we have seen from his pen.
It is sufficient, we hope, to set at rest all the doubts as to his acceptance of the nomination for the Presidency, which have been expressed by those in whom "the wish was father to the thought."

WEST BATON ROUGE, LA.,
May 15th, 1847.

Wm. L. HODGE, Esq.:
Dear Sir: I send you, annexed, an extract of a letter, which I have recently received from General Taylor; and as it shadows forth the feelings and views of the General, on the subject of the next Presidency, in a manner which can do no violence to the feelings of any one, I have determined to have published that portion of it, which relates to a subject, in which his name has been very generally associated throughout the country for some time past. I do so, with the more readiness, because it is eminently calculated to give proper insight into the real character of this eminent man. Please let it have a place in your columns.

Yours, very sincerely and respectfully.

EXTRACT.
"In regard to the Presidency, I will not say that I would not serve, if the good people of the country were to require me to do so, however much it is opposed to my wishes, for I am free to say, that I have no aspirations for the situation. My greatest, perhaps only wish, has been to bring, or aid in bringing, this war to a speedy and honorable close. It has ever been, and still is, my anxious wish, that some one of the most experienced, talented, and virtuous statesmen of the country, should be chosen, to that high place at the next election. I am satisfied that, if our friends will do their duty, such a citizen may be elected."

"I must, however, be allowed to say, that I have not the vanity to consider myself qualified for so high and responsible a station, and whilst we have far more eminent and deserving names before the country, I should prefer to stand aside, if one of them could be raised to the first office in the gift of a free people."

"I go for the country, the whole country—and it is my ardent and sincere wish, to see the individual placed at the head of the nation, who, by a strict observance of the Constitution (be he whom he may) can make us most prosperous at home, as well as most respected abroad."

37-We are indebted to Messrs. Brooke, Shillington & Co., for a copy of Graham's Life of Taylor. This spirited production is illustrated with wood cuts. Our thanks are also returned to these go-ahead gentlemen for three excellent caricatures.—Scott's taking a hasty plate of soup and Santa Ana on the wing. A set-to between Polk and Webster about the origin of the war, and Polk's attempt to crush Taylor by appointing Scott to supersede him. They are rich.

One of the very best Weekly papers we receive is the Ballston Spa, N. Y. Journal, edited by J. Oakley Noyne. It abounds in choice selections and is edited with good judgment and great spirit.

The public interest absolutely requires a speedy enlargement of the Erie canal in New York, say the Albany papers. The amount of produce is so great that half of it cannot be got through, without long delays and heavy freights—all which fall on the consumer.

It turns out that Com. De Kay has been the block in the way of the Macedonian's not getting freight in New York for Ireland. He is a man in whom people have no confidence. He has had in his life, ample time to learn this fact, and it is a wonder that he did not discover his unpopularity. But we are the last to know ourselves.

37-Gen. Dromgoole is said to have left his whole estate—very large—to the children of Dugger whom he killed in a duel.

37-The stock of the Richmond and Ohio Rail Road is being slowly but surely taken up in Virginia.

37-Six miles of the posts of the New Orleans and Mobile line of Telegraph are already up.

37-Jalapa contains ten thousand inhabitants.

Mr. N. P. TAYLOR—the celebrated—arrived at Vera Cruz yesterday, says the Eagle of the 11th inst., with despatches for Gen. Scott and Commodore Perry. The Commodore came up to-day, and held long conversations with Mr. T., evidently very confidential, and often in a tone of voice and with a manner which indicated communications and sentiments of no ordinary importance. Mr. T. is the government in Mexico. He goes with the train tomorrow to meet Gen. Scott, and will doubtless give him ample instructions for the effectual prosecution of the war!

"They (the Democrats) claim to be a party of principle, and will support no man for the Chief Magistracy false upon, or hesitating in regard to the fundamental principles of Republicanism!"
Tory Albany Atlas.

What are their principles? The possession of power, the division of the spoils of office, and a squandering away of the people's money. No wonder these Tories, who impudently call themselves Democrats, will go for no man who will not be true to their fundamental principles.

Let the veil be withdrawn.—Tory Union.
Aye, it will be drawn, and that too, by the brave hand of John Minor Botts. So put your house in order, Mr. Polk. Your deeds will all be brought light.

If the Whigs had not idled and maliciously wasted away the last session of Congress—if they had passed the ten regiment bill when it was submitted to them—the Mexican war might have been closed long before this.

Tory Boston Post.
The Democrats had a majority of seventy in the last House of Representatives, and 7 in the last Senate, and yet this brazen-faced organ of the New England Tory Office Holders has the hardihood to charge the Whigs with the delay in the passage of the Ten Regiment Bill!

The Tory Union says that Mr. Polk coped successfully with English Diplomacy on the Oregon question. Aye, aye—by planting himself on 54 40, and then backing out to 49!

37-And still they come. The Raleigh, N. C. Star has unfurled the TAYLOR flag to the breeze, and says it will keep it there till December 1848. Huzza for old Zach! Nine cheers for the "Subaltern of Buena Vista," "The Thunderer of the Battle Fields of Mexico!"

Quite an excitement, says the Vera Cruz Eagle of the 11th inst., is introduced amongst the unaccustomed morning, by reports of the appearance of the vomito. Two deaths have occurred during the night, and both are attributed to that dread disease. One victim was a French lady, and the other Mr. Smith, the sutler of the Pennsylvania regiment. Both were in full health two days ago.

Gen. Scott's proclamation to the Mexicans of the 11th instant shall receive our attention tomorrow. It is a manifesto of our government, and shadows forth our future policy with regard to the conquered enemy.

The Zacatecas will not hear of peace with the United States.

The government, it appears, has ceased all direct communication with General Taylor, and conveys all its orders to him through General Scott!

The notorious Isaac Hill has sold out. His paper goes over to the ranks of the old Tories.

Mr. Grund in his letter to this day's Baltimore Sun says, that the terms of peace which Mr. T. will offer are less onerous than those which were offered after the battle of Monterey. A few more battles, then, and Mr. Polk will give the Mexicans all they ask!

37-The Virginia Free Press wishes to know whether any of the Polks have gone to the wars? Not one. It is not in the nature of the family. Their field of glory is in fine, rich, fat offices! The have to much of old Zeke's blood in them to relish the battle field.

37-The North Carolina volunteers have been decimated by disease on the banks of the Rio Grande.

An explosion of the fire damp occurred near Pottsville, Pa., on the 25th inst. in the collieries of Messrs. Rogers, Sinnickson & Co. by which Frances Kinley was severely, perhaps fatally burned, and Daniel and Peter McMenemy very severely injured. Considerable damage was done to the gangway, cars, rail road, &c.

Gen. Scott has written to the Mexicans to abandon the guerrilla warfare, and make peace like 'good boys.'

The Mexican Congress has refused by a vote of 44 to 33 to even consider the proposition of intervention offered by Great Britain between Mexico and the United States.

37-Poor General Cushing! While walking with a lady in Matamoros, a few days ago, he fell and broke his left leg! The gallant General's fate is a lamentable one, for he has fallen pierced, not by the enemy's lances, but by her glances!!

37-Old Madison county, Kentucky, always famous for her love of what is honest and true, presents an undivided front for the "Subaltern of Buena Vista," as they style Gen. Taylor. There is not a vote in the country that will not be thrown for him—Whigs, Democrats, Polkocrats, Tories, Natives, all, all!!

37-Captain Blanchard of Louisiana has declined the commission of Captain in the Volunteers, which the President offered him. The gallant captain is not to be caught with chaff, while such a man as Cushing is made a Brig. General.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE UNION.
The Union Caricaturing the Catholics of Mexico.

The Union, a few weeks back, in a leading article on Mexico, travelled so far out of its proper sphere, as to call the Catholics of that country, "Priest-Ridden." We are none of those who believe that the abuse of any sect of Christians, is promotive of either morals or charity among men, and hence our objection to the offensive character of the article in the government organ alluded to. We fear that much ignorance obtains in this country about the people of Mexico, and that both their physical and religious qualifications are much underrated, if not absolutely misrepresented by designing men now in the pay of Mr. Polk, for objects unworthy a great nation like ours. But the able Protestant correspondent of the Philadelphia Public Ledger in Mexico, writing from Jalapa, throws some light on this subject, which may seem to dispel the darkness that the Union like too many others of the same school, labors under.

"As I informed you in my last, the citizens of Jalapa are intelligent, well-placed, handsome, and orderly, and superior to any Mexicans I have yet seen. If they, or indeed, any of the Mexicans are 'priest ridden' (the words of the Union) their burdens are the lightest, and withal, are carried with the most grace and cheerfulness of any yet imposed upon mankind by the church. The truth is, the priest and the Church have their place; both are respected, but neither blindly followed; and I am more and better satisfied at every stage of our advance, that few of the popular notions of our people in relation to this country and its inhabitants are correct. The pretended tourists of Mexico have made sad blunders in almost every particular of their descriptions, and their errors convince me that they have never been here."

37-An officer who sailed up a river on the coast of Guinea, furnishes the following picture of the face of that horrible country: "We are thirty miles distant from the sea, in a country altogether uncultivated, 'overflowed with water—surrounded with thick impenetrable woods, and over-run with slime. The air so vitiated, noisome, and thick, that our torches and candles burnt dim, and seemed ready to be extinguished; and even the human voice lost its natural tone."

37-Fifty-five soldiers died of disease, chiefly diarrhoea, in the month of April at Vera Cruz.

37-The Zacatecas Journals give the list of killed and wounded at Buena Vista. They exceed five thousand. What terrible work our little band had to do to save itself!

The Union is very severe on Mr. Grund, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger and Baltimore Sun. It calls him an "ignorant, unprincipled writer," and says that his letters revealing the designs of the Administration are "arrogantly false"—are "specimens of partizan calumny in its most rank and shameless form." For our part we must differ with the Union about Mr. Grund. We regard him as a very learned writer, and his epistles as the true mirror of the designs of the Administration!

The good people of Montgomery, Indiana, met in Convention on the 15th inst., and nominated Gen. Taylor with three cheers for the Presidency. Stop that ball, father Ritchie!

The Maryland State Temperance Convention will meet at Baltimore, next Wednesday. We hope our Whig friends in Maryland will not suffer the question of Temperance to affect their votes in the approaching Congressional election, for we see it is the avowed purpose of the Temperance men to raise it.

The ship S. E. Howell sailed from Baltimore yesterday with 160 soldiers for Vera Cruz.

The sand-bar in the Chicago Harbor has been appropriately named "Mount Polk."

37-Louisiana—God bless her—continues to send relief to starving Ireland. Natchitoches remitted $600, and the free negroes of that town $63!

From present appearances, it would seem probable that Mr. Polk wishes to shut up old Zach in garrison duty at Monterey. He is not, we presume, to visit the Mexican capital. Very well. The people will give him a pass next year from the scene of his exile, with facilities to visit the capital of the United States.

Near 1000 troops left New Orleans on the 30th for Vera Cruz.

Graves are but the foot prints of the angels of eternal life.

Black silk sacks are quite the rage with the ladies of Philadelphia city. The fashion, no doubt is borrowed from the East, where the Turks have the credit of putting their ladies into sacks for any, every, and no offence at all.

"Mr. Green," said a tolerably dressed female the other day, entering a grocery in which were several customers, "have you any fresh corned pork?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"How much is this sugar a pound?"

"One shilling, ma'am."

"Let me have," she continued, lowering her voice, "half a pint of gin, and charge it as sugar on the book!"

God has made no one absolute. The rich depend on the poor, as well as on the rich.—The world is a magnificent building; all the stone gradually cemented together. There is no one subsists by himself alone.

A suicide of a married man in Philadelphia, on the 26th, and of a single lady in N York.

The Editor of the Hickman Ky. Standard must be a great wag. A few weeks since he made the following grave announcement in his paper, which was copied every where by the press and commented on with great feeling.

"A young lady, whose name we have not been able to ascertain, came into our dwelling two days ago and has since remained with our family. She has not spoken a word since her arrival, but she weeps almost incessantly."

Six weeks after publishing the above, our waggish brother relieves public anxiety by this admission:

"We have since found out her name, and can guess pretty well 'where she came from.' Miss Lucy Hannah is a bouncing girl, and when she gets a little older will call us father."

A little girl of Philadelphia died on Monday evening from over exertion in 'jumping rope.' It seems there was a trial of skill going on with the party as to who could jump the longest without resting. The deceased flushed with a desire to excel, took the rope and sprang lightly over it for some minutes, and though her companions begged her to stop, continued on until she sank to the ground and expired. Mothers ought not to allow their children to indulge in this sport to excess.

A cotton manufactory numbering 200 looms was consumed by fire in New Berlin, N. Y., on the 22d instant. Loss eighty thousand dollars.

The Anti-Renters, with the New York Tribune at their head, are taxing their wits in order to ascertain whether there be not some 'legal falsehood' through which the leaseholders of New York may successfully overthrow the landlords' asserted title. Well, going to law upon the subject is better than going to break each other's head.

A man fell, in one of the streets of New York a day or two since, under a stroke of apoplexy. A water doctor passing, immediately poured cold water gradually over his head and the patient got up and went on his way in less than 15 minutes. This is worth trying, for it is recorded as a fact.

Com.—Mr. Tatnall, what would be your course, supposing you were off a lee shore, the wind blowing a gale, both anchors and your rudder gone, all your canvass carried away, and your ship scudding rapidly towards the breakers?

Tatnall.—I cannot conceive, sir, that such a combination of disasters could possibly befall a ship, in one voyage.

Com.—Tut, tut, young gentleman, (said the old sea-dog, severely) we must have your opinion supposing such a case to have actually occurred.

Tatnall.—Well, sir; sails all carried away, did you say, sir?

Com.—Aye, all, every rag!

Tatnall.—Anchors gone, sir?

Com.—Aye, not an uncommon case!

Tatnall.—No rudder either, sir?

Com.—Aye, rudder unshipped!

Here the young officer dropped his head despondingly upon his breast, and the "old salt" continued sharply:

Come, sir, what would you do with your ship?

Tatnall.—(raising his head) I'd let her go to hell, sir, where she ought to go!

Com.—Right, sir, right! Mr. Clerk, enroll Mr. Tatnall as a Passed Midshipman!

37-A father and three of his children were bitten last Saturday in N. J., by a mad dog. The Paris were cicatrized immediately.

37-A beast in the shape of a man and apparently sane, was arrested a day or two ago in New York in the very act of raising an axe to kill his wife.

A youth of Georgia was recently bitten by a rattlesnake. In a few minutes he was no more.
